THE NEW POSTMASTER GENERAL.—The accession of Mr. Holt to the Cabinet was resisted by all his present colleagues. Hence it will re-quire some contact to wear off the sharp edges of such an association. The President decided of such an association. The President decided upon him at the outset, though he went through the cheap ceremony of an apparent consultation. Mr. Holt had impressed Mr. Buchanan with his abilities and character last summer, and has frequently been called into confidential counsel since then, and sometimes to the annoyance of Mr. Buchanan's regular advisor. He has no political aspirations, and is incapable of any deflection from what he regards the line of duty. political aspirations, and is incapable of any deflection from what he regards the line of duty. The man most urged in competition with him was Mr. Stanton, an eminent lawyer, formerly of Ohio, but who has practiced for years back mostly at the Pittsburg bar, and before the Court of Claims and Supreme Court here. He is the principal counsel for Mr. Sickles. The President objected to him as a quasi Pennsylvanian, and Judge Black was willing to retire to relieve that difficulty. But, of course, such an arrangement would have destroyed the boasted unity of the Cabinet, and it was premptly rejected. After that, these enterprising gouldrejected. After that, these enterprising gentle-men tried their hands on Mr. Branch, of North Carolina, but with no better success.— Washingten Correspondence N. Y. Tribune.

HEAR BOTH SIDES.—Says the New York Freeman's Journal, a Roman Catholic paper: "An act of extreme and arbitrary power has recently been exercised in Rome, whose recital makes us thank God for living in a land where haben corpus is recognized, and liberty of conscience respected. A young Englishwoman, nineteen years of age, a daughter of Admiral Cavendish, while sojourning in Rome with her father and his family, saw fit to carry into effect the purpose entertained by her for two years past, of changing her religion. To this end she visited the female Gonvent of Trinita di Monte, and was there received into the Cathdi Monte, and was there received into the Catholic Church. The Admiral, on hearing of the event, went to the Convent, took his daughter event, went to the Convent, took his daughter home, and, the Romans said and believed, kept her a close prisoner in her room—even to depriving her of her clothing, so that she should not leave her bed till he got himself ready to leave for England, to try the effect of its insular fogs on her convictions. In the United States a British Admiral who would undertake to imprison a young lady and use her so barbarously for exercising her rights of conscience, would be jerked up with uncom-fortable roughness, and taught better manners

SURGICAL MINDEMEANOR.—In the Louisville Courier of Friday we find the following: "Yesterday, about eleven o'clock A. M., a man discovered a barrel floating in the river. man discovered a barrel floating in the river. He brought it ashore and knocked in a head. It contained two dead bodies, a male and female, the legs and heads cut off, and the arms tied across the breast. The barrel was suffered to float over the falls."

Later in the day the barrel was discovered floating in the river at the foot of Sixth street, Nashville, Tenn., but the parties who made this accord discovery nucled it into who made this second discovery pushed it into the river as in the former instance. It was, the river as in the former instance. It was, however, subsequently found by a party of boys, near the mouth of the canal, and arrangements were forthwith made by some of the inhabitants to give the mangled remains a decent burial. The Nashville Patriot denounces the act as a gross outrage upon public feeling, adding that if surgeons must have "subjects" they should not dispose of them in the offensive and revolting a manuse. so offensive and revolting a manner.

COUNTERPRIT NOTES .- On Thursday last great hauf of counterfeit notes was made at Pittsburg, with the arrest of a man named John Hudgins, alias John Martin, in whose possession they were found. Over $1,500 in excellently executed counterfeit bank-notes were found on him. The amounts and names of the banks are as follows: $650 in five-dollar bills on the Bank of York, Pa., finely executed, and very close imitations of the genuine bills; one $2 bill State Script, Bank of Middletown, Pa.; $650 in ten-dollar bills, on the Western Bank of Virginia, Jefferson branch, a very close and dangerous imitation; $500 in three-dollar bills on the Bank of New Jersey, branch at New Brunswick, a close imitation; $50 in ten-dollar bills on the State Bank of Ohio, Cuyahoga branch, a close and excellent counterfeit, and one ten-dollar bill on the Iron Bank of Ironton, Ohio. The whole batch were evidently just from the press, as they were all new and SOMETHING STRANGE .- On the 8th inst., one Something Strange.—On the 8th inst., one Samuel Snyder, of Mansfield, Q., was intrusted with a requisition from Governor Chase to the Governor of Michigan, for the rendition of one Moses Schwab, under an indictment for perjury from the Richland Court of Common Pleas. Snyder, it appears, instead of presenting the requisition and obtaining a warrant, took it upon himself to seize the accused; but as Schwab was then about being tried for larceny at Grand Rapids, Snyder's conduct suggested the idea that the arrest was "bogus," it being only his intention to get the fellow out of the clutches of the law. A writ of habeas corpus was accordingly issued, and officer and corpus was accordingly issued, and officer and culprit were arrested and lodged in jail.

BEAG IS A GOOD DOG.—A Louisville editor, after pitching into a good dinner, of which mutton formed the staple, thus gave vent to his national emotions: "Louisville is getting to be the best meat market of the West. Our pork trade already is unrivaled, owing to the energy and ability of the pork morchants. Kentucky has long been known to produce the finest beeves in the Union, and the attention of some of our farmers has recently been directed to sheep as an investment equally as profitable.
The flock we saw last evening was in fine condition, and gave our local a pleasurable remembrance of mutton dressed up in delicious

Coming it Strong.—An English paper in forms us that, in that country, spirit-rapping has come out in a new style, and rather an aggressive attitude. A body of these singularly-endowed people in Dudley have assumed a mission from the spirits to convert the religious bodies in the neighborhood to the spirit truth, and for that purpose have gone in a body to the Primitive Methodist Chapel, where they fell to ranting and raving, and smiting their breasts, and making a fell disturbance. It is probable the magistrates may have something to say to the spirit-struck.

Wouldn't an Fune .- Some time during last week a negro belonging to Charles Gross, of Bourbon County, Ky., ran off and escaped to Canada, his owner making no attempt to espture. A few days since the fellow returned to his owner, having walked the entire way from Toronts. He declares slavery preferable to shifting for a livelihood.

Miss Catharine Bingham, of New York, the young lady who had been missing for nearly a week, was found on board an old canal-boat, in Harlem River, on Wednesday afternoon, and was promptly restored to her almost distracted mother. Miss B. appeared to be laboring under temporary aberration of mind.

John Coney, a young riverman, was, at about half-past seven o'clock on Wednesday evening, horribly—and in all probability fatally—stabbed five times by one Owen M'Grath, in the alley-yard of the Franklin Buildings, on Franklin avenue, St. Louis.

the ice has disappeared. SPRINGFIELD, March 21 .- The flood in the Connecticut has been increased by the heavy rains of Saturday. The river is now twenty feet above low water mark here, and at Hart-ford twenty-six feet above. The bridges at Charleston and Walpole, N. H., have been swept away, and the railroad bridge at Sulli-van is impassable. All the lowlands and meadows in the valley are overflowed, and many houses have been flooded. No loss of life has been heard of. The water is now receding, and it is thought that there will be no further damage.

No Extra Session.

WASHINGTON, March 21 .- An official telethis morning, to go out by the California mail steamer, announcing that there will be no proc-lamation issued for an extra session of Congress. There is much speculation as to how the service of the Post-office Department will be maintained, in quarters usually the best informed on such subjects. It is said that the law authorizing the issuing of contracts, will continue to be carried out, embracing the issue of Treasury Warrants as usual; but as there is no money to pay them, they will, in the hands of contractors, serve as the basis of loans. It is not known that any other explanators are contracted in that any other evidences or certificates of in-debtedness will be issued.

From Boston.
Boston, March 21.—In the School Committee this afternoon, a communication was read from Bishop Fitspatrick, of the Roman Catholic Church, stating in temperate terms the objections held by the parents of Catholic children to the reading of the Bible in the schools. The subject was indefinitely postponed. The excitement is dying out.

Capture of a Supposed Slaver.

SAVANNAH, March 21.—A letter from the Post-master at Apalachicola to the Albany (Ga.) Patriot, says that the bark E. A. MISCELLANEOUS. Preserve your Metal Roofs,

Stop your Leaky Roofs, And Protect your Property, by using

SALTONSTALL'S WATER AND FIRE PROOF, ADHESIVE

AND ELASTIC

COATING FOR ROOFS. The Cheapest and most Durable COATING fo Metal or Canvas Roofs ever used.

T WILL EFFECTUALLY RESIST THE

Metal or Composition Roofs, And is Warranted to withstand the Severest test of the Heat, Cold, or Rain of any Climate, and remain perfectly impervious to water. It will not wrack by the expansion and contraction of Metals, or from the effects of frest.

It is not affected by the most intense heat from the sun, and water can not penetrate it, even by continual exposure. It entirely prevents explication. Metals once coated with it can not absorb moisture, which removes the true cause of corrosion or rust. Examine and see if your interest will not be promoted by giving it a trial.
